THE UTK EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMITTEE

The Equal Employment Opportunity Committee is a standing administrative committee, whose members are appointed annually by the Chancellor. The Committee relates administratively to the Vice Chancellor for Planning and Administration, who is the UTK EEO and Title IX Compliance Officer, and is chaired by the Affirmative Action Coordinator.

The Committee:

A. Reviews the UTK Affirmative Action Plan and makes recommendations for changes.

B. Assists the Affirmative Action Coordinator in the periodic and regular monitoring of the implementation of the provisions of the Affirmative Action Plan.

C. Receives and reviews reports on Affirmative Action prepared by the Affirmative Action Coordinator.

D. At the request of the Vice Chancellor for Planning and Administration, members of the EEO Committee serve on ad hoc committees appointed to aid the Affirmative Action Coordinator in the investigation of complaints of discrimination.
